

NGĀHINAPŌURI NEWSLETTER

Term 4 Week 5 2024 Issue 35

Principal's Message

Tena koutou Ngāhinapouri Whanau,

Last Friday we had a fantastic day at the Lower Waipa Athletics. Watching our students compete at this level while also being so supportive of each other and the other athletes was very special. It is always a proud moment seeing our kids shine like that. We came away with some great results too which I will share with you later on in the newsletter.

Thank you again to all the parents who were able to give us their time on Friday by providing transport and support to our students throughout the day. Your ability to help, as always, is critical to the success of days like this.

Athletics certificates will be presented at Monday's assembly.

On Friday night we were treated to the debut performance of the local rock sensation "Lost Property" as they had a gig at the Ngāhinapouri Craft Market. Under a blazing sun, in front of a crowd of fans the band gave an awesome performance! They now are looking to putting on a gig for the school sometime soon. Watch this space!

Start Date 2025

Our school will be open for the first day of school next year on the 3rd of February

Teacher Only Day

We will be having an MOE directed teacher only day on the 22nd of November this term. The reason for this allocated day is to upskill our team on the changing mathematics curriculum and resources we will have to use in 2025.

Nga mihi,
Mark

A STORY BY EVIE SHARP

One morning when I went to school, my principal Mr Harrop wasn't at school, but I just assumed that he was going to be late. When the bell rang he still wasn't at school so I asked my teacher and she said she didn't know where he was, so she tried to call him but there was no answer. She tried again, still no answer again so she called Ms Harrop and she said when she woke up this morning, he wasn't in bed. She looked in the kitchen and he wasn't there either. His phone was left on the side table. We asked to look through the phone and she found something that made our jaws drop. He was invited to sing at a Pearl Jam concert in Auckland. So she rushed to Auckland to find him. She found him singing away and playing guitar with Pearl Jam. He loved it! Then the Warriors got on stage and they all danced and Ms Harop captured it on video, she showed it to us and we loved it.
